Privacy Statement

The Pharmacy Guild of Australia ('PGA', 'we' or 'us') is bound by the National Privacy Principles set out in the Privacy Act 1988 of the Commonwealth of Australia. This privacy statement affirms our commitment to comply with those Principles.

You, the student to which this enrolment form relates, have a number of rights under this legislation, including the right to access the personal information that we may hold about you. You need to be aware that if you do not provide us with certain information about yourself, in some circumstances we may be unable to provide a service that you require.

If you have any questions about your privacy rights, or the way in which we collect, use, manage or disclose personal information, our staff would be happy to answer your questions or provide you with further information.

Your personal information may be collected, stored, used and disclosed by us for the following purposes:

- To develop, administer, deliver, provide and manage training, training materials and assessment services;
- To report to the national secretariat of the Pharmacy Guild of Australia on any training and assessment services developed, administered, delivered or provided by us;
- To report to state/territory government departments, authorities and agencies and nominated Australian Apprenticeship Centres as required to comply with our obligations to those organisations and as required to enable you to undertake and complete your training;
- To report to your employer and your school (if you are attending school) on the outcome of any training in which you were enrolled (including without limitation, the results of any assessment undertaken as part of that training);
- To provide you, free of charge, with marketing communications on training that may be of interest to you (including through SMS, e-mails, telephone and other forms of electronic messages); and
- As otherwise authorised, permitted or required by law.

You may gain access to any of your personal information held by us upon request. You may also withdraw your consent for the collection, use or disclosure of your personal information at any time by contacting us in writing. However, you should note that if we are not provided with the personal information we require, or if you withdraw your consent for the collection, use, storage or disclosure of your personal information, it may prevent us from providing training and assessment services to you.

Training Terms and Conditions

By signing the attached 'Enrolment Form - Traineeships' ('Enrolment Form') and forwarding that form to PGA, the Student and the Employer have agreed with the PGA to comply with these terms and conditions ('Terms'). These Terms supersede and prevail over any other terms and conditions included in any purchase order, confirmation or other document or communication from the Student or the Employer to PGA.

1. Definitions: In these Terms:

- (a) 'Employer' means the person described in the Enrolment Form attached to these Terms who employs the Student;
- (b) 'GST' means GST as defined in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 as amended from time to time or any replacement or other relevant legislation and regulations;
- (c) 'PGA' means The Pharmacy Guild of Australia ABN 84 519 669 143 of Level 2, 15 National Circuit, Barton, Australian Capital Territory, Australia.
- (d) 'Student' means the person described in the Enrolment Form attached to these Terms and who is employed by the Employer;
- (e) 'Training Course' means the course or courses described in the Enrolment Form under the heading 'Course Details'; and
- (f) 'Training Materials' means any materials provided by the PGA to the Student with respect to a Training Course including without limitation, any course notes, data presentations, case studies and assessment activities.

2. Enrolment: On receipt of the Enrolment Form, PGA may, in its sole discretion, either enrol the Student in one or more of the Training Courses, or decline to enrol the Student in one or more of the Training Courses. If PGA enrolls a Student in a Training Course, it will notify the Student in writing of such enrolment (such notice will specify the date, time and location of the Training Course).

3. Cancellations: If the Student is enrolled in a Training Course, he or she may cancel that enrolment by notifying PGA in the manner set out in the 'Payment, Refund and Cancellation Policy' set out in the Enrolment Form prior to the start of that Training Course. The Student and the Employer each acknowledge and agree that PGA will apply the 'Payment, Refund and Cancellation Policy' set out in the Enrolment Form.

4. Course fees: The fees for enrolling in a Training Course are as set out in this Enrolment Form ('Fees'). PGA may, from time to time, vary the Fees by publishing those prices within its new Enrolment Forms.

5. Payment of fees: The Fees must be paid by either the Student or the Employer at the time the Enrolment Form is submitted to PGA. The Student and the Employer each acknowledge that PGA will not enrol the Student until the Fees are paid in full.

6. Course rescheduling: The Student and the Employer each acknowledge and agree that PGA may cancel, postpone, reschedule or relocate any Training Course due to low enrolments or other unforeseen or unexpected circumstances. If PGA exercises this option, PGA will use its reasonable endeavours to notify Students of any such change to a Training Course as early as practicable in the circumstances. The Student and the Employer each acknowledge and agree that PGA will apply the 'Payment, Refund and Cancellation Policy' set out in the Enrolment Form.

7. Intellectual Property Rights: Any intellectual property rights subsisting in the Training Materials are owned by PGA and, where appropriate, its licensors. The Student and the Employer must not reproduce, modify, enhance, adapt, translate, publish, perform, communicate, or create any derivative work based on, the whole or any part of the Training Materials. The Student and the Employer must not remove, deface or obscure any identification, trade marks, proprietary or copyright notice on any part of the Training Materials. No intellectual property rights are assigned or licensed by PGA to either the Student or the Employer under these Terms. The Student and the Employer must not take any action, or cause any third party to take any action, contesting the ownership rights set out in this clause and must do all things necessary or convenient to give effect to this clause 7.
8. Use of Training Materials: The Student may use the Training Materials solely for undertaking the Training Course to which the Training Materials relate. The Student must not distribute, disclose, sublicense, rent, lease or sell or otherwise grant or transfer any interest in the whole or any part of the Training Materials to any person, except with the prior written consent of PGA.
9. Exclusion of Liability: To the extent permitted by law and except any implied term, condition or warranty the exclusion of which would contravene any statute or cause any part of these Terms to be void ('Non-excludable Condition'), PGA and its related bodies corporate disclaim and exclude all terms, conditions and warranties implied by custom, the general law or statute.
10. Several Liability: An agreement, representation or warranty on the part of two or more persons binds them separately.
11. Governing Law: These Terms are governed by the laws in force in the Australian Capital Territory in Australia. The parties irrevocably and unconditionally submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of that Territory and any courts which have jurisdiction to hear appeals from any of those courts and waives any right to object to any proceedings being brought in those courts. These Terms constitute the entire agreement between the parties relating to the subject matter of these Terms and may only be varied by the written agreement of the parties.
